

Bendigo Cemetery

Notes for John Wolstencroft and his wife Sarah Ann.
They are buried in the family Grave #2747 in section E4.
Four earlier children are not named on the headstone.

Sarah died in 8/08/1911 aged 76 and John died in 5/03/1922 aged 87 and their son Joseph in 5/01/1945 aged 77.

John was involved in establishing the family brick making company with his brother William.

William is buried in F3 in his family grave but his obituary is shown as this page, as both brothers worked together and came to Australia at the same time.

This inscribed brick is at the summit of the Post Office tower.

With others it was made and presented by the Wolstencroft brothers
in a ceremony during construction on 27th
November 1885.

Brick Manufacturer, Miller Street
who was born March 6th 1835
and died August 8th 1911
Aged 76 years and 5 months
Native of Oldham, Lancashire
England
A Bendigonian 50 years
Her last words were/ "Where's Father"

One of the best that God could send beloved by all, a faithful friend called home from those who deeply love
To call a glorious life above
With aching hearts, with tearful eyes
We linger where our dear one lies and breathe those sacred words, once more
Not lost, but only gone before
Sadly missed

William Wolstencroft and his wife Eliza.

Obituaries for William Wolstencroft, brother to John. He died in 1907 and is buried in section F3 with his wife Eliza who died in October 1910.

OBITUARY.

Mr William Wolstencroft, whose name has been associated with the local brickmaking industry for many years, passed away at his residence, Sheepwash Road, last night. The deceased gentleman, who was 66 years of age, had been ailing for about two months from kidney troubles, to which he ultimately succumbed. He was a native of Oldham, Lancashire, and had resided in Bendigo between 40 and 50 years.

On his arrival in Bendigo, Mr Wolstencroft's attention was directed to the brickmaking industry, and he and his brother afterwards became associated with the firm of J and W Wolstencroft and Sons, of Back Creek. Mr Wolstencroft, who was universally esteemed and respected was of a quiet, unassuming nature, and did not interest himself in public matters. There are only two children, Mr Joseph Wolstencroft and Miss Marjorie Wolstencroft, both of whom reside in Bendigo.

Eliza Wolstencroft

Bendigo Advertiser (Vic. : 1855 - 1918) Tue 18 Oct 1910 Page 3

OBITUARY.

Mrs Eliza Wolstencroft, widow of the late Mr William Wolstencroft, of the well known firm of brick manufacturers, expired somewhat suddenly on Sunday night, at her residence, Sternberg Street, at the age of 70 years. The deceased lady had not enjoyed good health for several years, but was able to go about, and was in the city last Friday, when nothing serious was apparent. Dr Park attended her. She was a native of Oldham, Lancashire, and spent 37 years of her life in this State. She was held in high esteem by a large circle of friends. The funeral will take place today at 3 pm, and will be of a private character.
